Sir. M. Visveshvaraya K.C.I.E
Dewan of Mysore.

Sir,

I hope you will permit me to make this special appeal for the Hospital for Women in Chandragadde. Just before I left India in 1914 for furlough the Medical Improvement Committee met & unanimously recommended a second grant of 5000 Rs for this Hospital. I thought that there would be no difficulty in the way. Unfortunately this second grant, for some reason, has been refused & so the building has been delayed on account of shortage of funds. I have already spent over 15000 Rs on this undertaking & I must get a roof on the main building before the rains set in or else what has been done already will be wasted. The reason why my scheme became large was that you required us to make provision for the training of midwives & thus I was involved in greater expense.

I am glad to tell you that there is now a good prospect of securing a fully qualified Lady Doctor from England. I expect to report her arrival before the end of the year.
